

Do you know:

- Tapestry Folkdance Center is one of very few national non-profits that both produce various world dance events AND rents to other dance groups.
- In the years leading up to buying the building, Tapestry Folkdance Center had regularly scheduled dances in at least 15 different venues.
- Tapestry Folkdance Center volunteers rehabbed the current building in 1999 and dancer financial support paid off the mortgage in January 2018.
